	(2)	The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
			Alternative Findings
$\boxtimes$	(1)	There is a serious risk that the defendant will flee; no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.
	(2)	No condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of others and the community.
	(3)	There is a serious risk that the defendant will (obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice) (threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or juror).
	(4)	PART II WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION (Check one or both, as applicable.)
	(1)	I find that the credible testimony and information <sup>3</sup> submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence as to danger that:
$\boxtimes$	(2)	I find that a preponderance of the evidence as to risk of flight that:
			The defendant has no significant contacts in the District of Arizona.  The defendant has no resources in the United States from which he/she might make a bond reasonably calculated to assure his/her future appearance.
		$\boxtimes$	The defendant has a prior criminal history.
		$\boxtimes$	There is a record of prior failure to appear in court as ordered.
			The defendant attempted to evade law enforcement contact by fleeing from law enforcement.  The defendant is facing a minimum mandatory of incarceration and a maximum of $\boxtimes$	The d	efenda	nt does not dispute the information contained in the Pretrial Services Report.
$\boxtimes$	In add	lition:
			nt submitted the issue of detention to the Court. Defense counsel indicated that the defendant is ving a term of imprisonment in state court and is not eligible for release. Even if eligible, the Court e defendant poses a risk of flight because his social history was not verified, he has not stable residence or employment, he has a long and serious history of substance abuse, particularly alcohol, there are three	outstan	ding warrants for his arrest, and his criminal history includes two probation violations and a failure to app	ear, an	d violent offenses. For all of these reasons, the Court finds that the defendant poses a risk of flight.

The Court incorporates by reference the findings of the Pretrial Services Agency which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter.

The rules concerning admissibility of evidence in criminal trials do not apply to the presentation and consideration of information at the [detention] hearing. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) for the factors to be taken into account.

PART III -- DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

PART IV -- APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before the District Court. Pursuant to Rule 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P., effective December 1, 2009, Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this order or after the oral order is stated on the record within which to file specific written objections with the district court. Failure to timely file objections in accordance with Rule 59(a) may waive the right to review. 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing before the District Court to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the potential third party custodian.

Dated this 17th day of March, 2016.
